

Current Affairs of the Day

GS II

- Biden picks Sumona Guha for the key role on South Asia at NSC.

Biden picks Sumona Guha for the key role on South Asia at NSC

Highlights:

1. The Biden-Harris transition team announced the appointment of Indian-American Sumona Guha to the role of Senior Director for South Asia at the National Security Council.
2. Ms Guha co-chaired the South Asia foreign policy working group on the Biden-Harris campaign and was a member of the transition team.
3. She has also worked at the U.S.-India Business Council and, prior to that, in the Secretary of State's Policy Planning Staff with responsibility for South Asia.
4. The new positions include Coordinator for democracy and human rights (Shanthy Kalathil) and Senior Director for technology and national security (Tarun Chhabra).